Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 36-40, 79-81, and 83-87 are allowed because the prior art does not teach or suggest a system/method for extracting design and layout information from a plurality of image-mosaics representative of a deconstructed integrated circuit in the manner as recited in the claims; the system/method having combinations of all the element/steps in the claims including, among other things, the following features as recited in the claims: annotation ownership tracking; unique annotation label generation; annotation locking; and annotation merging.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
